TWILIGHT DREAMS SCANS

Okay, cute comic characters aside we really need some people to help on some projects. I'm not kidding around this time.

I'm swamped between translating and typesetting just about everything. My only spare Japanese translator went missing, we lost our cleaner for Metal heart and its translator is on break. Sankuri is MIA.

Not to mention I'm balancing this while writing a light novel and drawing images for it (which isn't my strong point), planning out a new VN, dealing with school,

Learning to program a game that won't suck, and on top of everything else,

I'm backed up 3 RPG games!! 3 of them!!

SOMETHING IS GONNA BREAK PEOPLE!!!

Whenever someone joins they always seem to do it at the wrong time, so these are the positions we need people right now:

TWILIGHT DREAMS SCANS

Okay, cute comic characters aside we really need some people to help on some projects. I'm not kidding around this time.

I'm swamped between translating and typesetting just about everything. My only spare Japanese translator went missing, we lost our cleaner for Metal heart and its translator is on break. Sankuri is MIA.

Not to mention I'm balancing this while writing a light novel and drawing images for it (which isn't my strong point), planning out a new VN, dealing with school,

Learning to program a game that won't suck, and on top of everything else,

I'm backed up 3 RPG games!! 3 of them!!

SOMETHING IS GONNA BREAK PEOPLE!!!
